To Whomsoever It May Concern

We certify that Ms. L. MILESWARI, 1st year MSW student trainee from Dr. Ambedkar Government Arts College placed in Kannikapuram successfully completed her 13 days Internship Field Work from 25.06.2022 to 09.07.2022. During her field work, she had maintained good communication with the organization and followed the guidance given by the supervisors. She became familiar among the after school tuition children, teachers and computer students through her smooth approaches, effective interactions and dedicated services. She had been also appreciated by the stakeholders and volunteers for her nice involvement with the children of tuition centers during her regular visits.

She has good communication and interaction skills. She enthusiastically participated in various discussions / meetings of our organization's staff in planning and review of ongoing programs and field work. She invited an external expert for a training program organized for the students of computer course on various challenges against women and the need for self initiative for their empowerment.

She organized a competition event on Drawing and Thirukkural Reading under importance of education for the students in After School Tuition Centre at Vyasarpadi and encouraged children with prizes. She has good skills in local resource mobilization. She has utilized the learning opportunity well and actively participated in all developmental activities during her field work days. She has learnt many things in the fields of theoretical, practical knowledge and skills and how to organize programs well.

We wish her for a bright future.

Thank you very much for your esteemed collaboration.
